(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

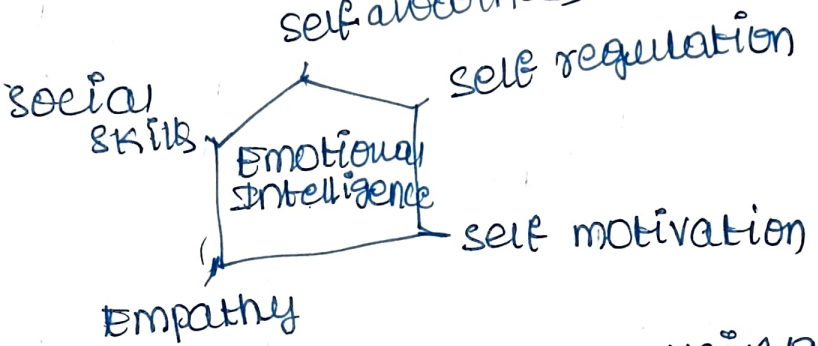

UPSC

MGP 2026/GS-IV/TEST: 914218 Sectional

Candidates must not write on this margin

Q1) a) Emotional intelligence as described by Daniel Goleman, is ability to express and producing emotion of ourselves to promote personal and emotional growth.

It involves 5 element as stated below

How policing can be improved using Emotional intelligence:

a) Training police to understand emotions producing in them under various situation in order to better regulate them

Ex:- In case of a sectarian riots police needs to act neutrally shunning any identification

2) Public relation and social skills training is in order to better the interaction and trust

Ex:- counselling to a victim

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

very good

3) various coping techniques for dealing with workload and stress like meditation, yoga, mindfulness etc,

4) Inculcating empathy in training in order to understand the plight of victims. and act responsibly with accountability

Ex:- Introduction of zero FIR.

5) Reinforcing self motivational ~~start~~ of EI by rewarding good & ideal behaviour and institutional values being imbibed through role-models

Ex: Kiran Bedi making reforms in Jails

Indian policing have had a strained relations ~~with~~ and issue with public trust which require sensible component of emotional competence of personnel in this era of public scrutiny and media trails.

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

Q7

b) Bureaucratic attitudes refers to weberian concept of strictly following rules, regulations and established norms of public administration whereas democratic attitude refers to public participation in decision making as a part of administration that work for and on them.

Bureaucratic attitude	Democratic attitude
1) Strictly following rules, regulation and norms irrespective of case	1) Deciding the course of action on a case-case basis based on public consultations
2) promotes qualities such as objectivity, standard operating procedure and practices that reinforces rule of law	2) promotes public participation, inclusivity, and ensures principles of natural justice are uphold
3) lacks empathy and compassion on the part of public administrator	3) promotes empathy, compassion and probity on the part of public administrator

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

4) Lack of transparency & accountability may promotes discretion thus red tapism and corruption > Top-down approach	4) Builds on "taking everyone along" principle which ensures less scope for discretion and corruption > Bottom-up approach
5) undermines public trust and confidence even if public administrator acting responsibly according established code of conduct and ethics Ex:- Deciding on whether to give ration to a starving who is not having proper necessary documents	5) Builds public trust and confidence on government procedure and institutional mechanism Ex:- CEC taking on the full commission into confidence when taking any decision

17 min

Thus one should resort to democratic attitude whenever possible as it would be desirable for vast and diverse country as India which can also promotes the constitutional ethos, when dealing with public administration

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

EI

2) a) > Emotional intelligence refers to analysing, understanding expressing, understanding and regulating emotions in order to promote personal and ~~emoti~~ professional growth.

> Emotional intelligence can be divided into following components as remarked Daniel Golemann

1) Self awareness → Ability to understand and acknowledge emotions as & when they occur

2) Self regulation → understanding and be able to know when to hold and when to act on emotions

3) ~~Self~~ motivation → Effectively using emotions to motivate ourselves to reach our goals self improvement a sense of purpose

4) Social skills → Ability to lucidly convey emotional content that can be nurtured with interpersonal skills

5) Empathy → ~~Ab~~ Able to understand others emotions and able to act on that with clear identification & implications & different courses of action

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

I consider myself to be emotionally intelligent person cause of following reasons.

1) Able to objectively assess the situation and acknowledges emotions inowed. which indicates self awareness

2) communicating content in mind as lucidly as possible which indicates social skills

3) Empathetic towards others and compassionate to their circumstances

4) Ability to generate right emotions for different contents and situations

12 min

(Eg:- Honesty in cases of reporting

(Eg) Documenting

Thus, Emotional intelligence can be said to be a important consideration in professional and personal success of people as established by research which states that 20% of success times people likely to be ~~is contributed by EI~~ due to EI

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

b)

News fatigue refers to reduced (or) complete loss appetite of people towards mainstream news content thus stifling their ability to make informed decisions in this information abundance age.

Causes of news fatigue)

> single minded focus on the part of media houses towards profits, engagement and advertisements over quality reporting

> Rise of social media and desperation of legacy media to stay relevant in the algorithmic savvy engagement

> Lack of objectivity and factually neutral stance of media houses in order to shape public opinion

Ex:- Al Jazeera covering J&K problem

> crony & businessman - being investors and owning media who sought to beam a particular type of content in a particular format with all biases

News fatigue?
Causes
> Algorithmic
> TRP/profit motive
> Attention span & loss of vitality
> Crony media bias
> political affiliations

What
> Transparency & accountability > social disapproval
> Objectivity on part of debating media to be public sense
> Editorial Independence
> Means to obtain info

demonetisation

made it a

19 min

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

> Ideological and political alignment of media houses and giving up independence

Strategies to adopt to ethically re-engage citizens :-

1) Giving complete editorial independence to journalists without any ideological, political and ~~temper~~ social bias given from top down approach

2) Holding media houses accountable and rewarding those who report factual objective information

3) Adopting media code of conduct and ethics to be complied by journalists

4) promoting ~~sensible~~ necessary avenues of independent investments (or investments without strings) for media houses to tap on.

5) Publishing the mechanism of information obtained from ground up which can improve public confidence in their reporting.

Information overload in this attention span scare, algorithmic driven and AI driven narrative social order need some provides necessary conditions for honest objective reporting to flourish and rewarded for media house. Information to empowerment it than exhaustion space creative vitality civic retreat

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

Q3)

Define Indifference.

Public affairs
↓ Youth part Technocratic
Apathy
↓ Corruption Virtuous cycle
Ruling effects anyone

> Indifference refers to having no opinion (or) thinking about the issues at hand and thus taking no action as if that issue doesn't concern us.

> This quote captures basic tension in polity about being passive stakeholders (or) members that follows a leader versus the active stance to shape our destiny by being its leader

price paid being indifferent to public affairs populist authoritarian tendencies

Lobby groups
Narrow interests
Nepotism & cronyism capture
Less social capital

> Increase in incompetent people running a polity & latent potential

> Lacks justice, fairness and egalitarian principles that effect every member in the society and polity > produces the vicious cycle of evil rulers producing evil leaders by being held as role models that would iteratively destroy a civilization on the whole

> Lawlessness and rule of will as opposed to rule of law in public affairs due to evil men insensitivity & self centeredness

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

pol of divergence
apathy & disengagement

Strategies to be adopted to counter these tendencies in present day polity:

1) Encouraging youth to participate in politics and shape their own destiny via active contributors Unnecessary → 2) Involving and propagating the views and solutions of technocratic nature ~~which from removes~~

3) promoting inclusivity and democratic principles in the polity and among citizenspaces

17 min

4) Encouraging ethical conduct of those ruling and sensitising about rights and constitutional values from childhood itself to ignite their interest in future politics.

India as we inherited after a massive people movement for independence under abled leadership need to steer towards progress and development under abled men whose shunning away from public affairs does greater harm than one thinks and it will eventually affects them as well.

worse → possible

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

(b) This quote captures the central role played by attitude in human life and the overall impact it can create on our personality

→ Attitude refers to the collective disposition of an individual to act (or) not act in a certain way under certain circumstances.

> Attitude structurally can be decomposed into these 3 components

① Affective ⇒ ~~which can have effect on~~ → Emotional component

② Behavioural ⇒ Action Part

③ cognitive ⇒ Thoughts, beliefs and values

> Attitude guides the behaviour which ultimately leads to change in actions thus our life changes.

> Attitude guiding behaviour depends on following circumstances

① Qualities of behaviour which reinforce each other when they matched closely

② Qualities of situation which deals with accessibility and valence

③ qualities of person being self aware and consistent structure

↳ A affective
B behaviour
C cognitive ↳ Attitudes
↓
changing
↳ changing attitude
↳ MODE analysis
↳ social conditioning

19 min

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

4) qualities of attitude itself in terms of direct accessibility and centrality of it.

How altering attitude can change life

1) Direct bearing on behaviour and thus actions which charts destiny

2) Forms ethical and moral outlook of a person thus rewarded with social approval (or) favouring

3) consistent behaviour with consistent positive attitude builds reputation and credibility for individual

4) Adopting attitudes according to changing times and informing make ones actions consistent to the times than being obsolete

Attitude forms centrality in the persona of an individual thus changing it for the good will have direct bearing on our life.

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

Q4) This case present a basic interplay in journalism between scooping a major breakthrough thus enhancing our visibility versus being credible and trustworthy within the precints legal and political ethics.

Journalism ethics chilling effect on freedom of press

(a) Options available

① Publishing the video immediately

Merits

> Increase visibility and needed engagement at right time of survival struggle

> Satiating commercial and colleague appetite for breakthrough journalism

> Timely information to citizens to regain their trust

Boosts public morale

Demerits

> Repercussion on legal and ethical front > potential deepfake and misleading campaign video as would generally be in times of wars & propaganda

> Losing trust and a ~~death~~ self- suicidal step if it is found out to be fake

> Field reporters

> Escalating conflict of Ploonda

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

2) Waiting until the authenticity is established by government/military side via press conference

Merits:-
- upholds media ethics and responsible journalistic principles
- Avoiding legal and political repercussions
- Being a credible and authorative source of information

Demerits
- too late to have grabbing visibility and much needed visibility
- potentially being branded as used to be "mainstream" media which can be damaging to reputation
- loss of commercial and editorial interest in the page. Newspaper

3) Expediting the verification from multiple credible sources and forensically establishing the authenticity of the video and objectively assessing the plausibility of the attack.

Merits
- Reinforces the credibility of being trust worthy
- Avoids legal implication of the fake news act
- provides neccessary visibility and engagement for the news paper

Demerits :-

> potential bias (or) reinforcing nature of propagand for the resources sought

> Dissatisfaction from the colleagues asking for immediate publication

(b) I would choose the option 3 as it establishing and reinforcing following principles

① upholds media ethics of objectivity, honesty and credibility / trustworthiness

② promotes responsible journalism in times of sensationalism

③ Establishes newspapers reputation as a authoritative source of information

④ provides necessary engagement for the newspaper at its dire times

⑤ contributing to national opinion public and nation building on correct information.

(c) Ethical dilemmas involved in here are as follows

① choosing between responsible, trustworthiness and factuality

② versus basic survivability and engagement for commercial interest

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

2) Tension between balancing professional and media ethics versus ~~basic~~ politically and informatively relevant in times of fierce competition

3) following and obeying rule of the land and legal framework in consonance with citizenery right to know information

27 min

Q5) This case involves a basic tension of interplay between personal safety and minor inconvinience in following safety protocols. and legal compliance to rules of laws

(a) Ethical issues involved :-

1) personal safety and complying with rule of the law and regulations. put in place for common longer societal good

2) Non-Malfeasance principle where violations will hurt other commuters travellers

3) lack of empathy and compassion towards others and their safety

4) Breaking co-operation and normalisation of violation of law

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

5) Violating fairness and vulnerable distributive justice principle where vulnerables like children, elder and women are at greater risk

6) Common tragedy and normalization of violations that would break the cohesion and leads to compromise in road safety.

(b) Negative attitude towards seat belts can be as follows.

27 min

1) Little inconvience of moving freely inside car like seeing out of window while cruising through hilly side

2) Societal normalization and peer pressure as to not wear which may seem lame.

3) Invoking the attitude of "common people tragedy" where in everyone think minor violation can do no harm to anyone

4) General lack of patience and kindness along with lack of legal punitive measures at all places maybe contributing

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

(c) suggestions to bring about positive changes in the attitude.

1) sensitising people about perils eg not wearing seat belts and showing evidencing data points and dispelling myths

2) Moral pursuasion and signalling from role model figure and modifying the attitude objects

3) ~~campaigns and~~ conditioning from manufacturers to make it mandatory to wear seat belt before ~~st~~ driving

4) campaigns year long to bring about ~~chan~~ normalising wearing seat belt

~~this~~ seat belt wearing is one eg many ~~a necessary~~ negative attitudes people have towards ~~some~~ necessary rules, laws and safeguards, bring a change about in ~~x~~ that attitude ~~could~~ which can bring larger societal good.

(Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

Q6) This case involves a potential issue of balancing public official duties and ethics with respect to private relations and ethics with a potential compromise in violating social contract

(a) Ethical issues involved

1) Breach of public trust and violating code of conduct if the details are & established norms disclosed

2) Violating principles of transparency, integrity and objectivity with a potential insider trading and conflict of interests

3) Violating fiduciary responsibility by virtue of being in the position as well as forgoing public accepted standard regulations

4) Loss to the state exchequer and violating principles of distributive justice as well as objective fairness

5) Collusive corruption and breaking of morals and accepted ethical code of conduct

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

(b) Options available to subash

1) sharing details with his and ministers nephew enrich son and help maintain their family economic status.

Merits:-

> Maintains and nurtures personal familial relations

> Economical gains and helping in his son's career > cordial relations with the minister by speeding up the process

Demerits

> Breach professional code of conduct, code of ethics and established norms & regulations

> Lack of transparency, integrity, honesty and objectivity

> Breaking public trust in government process and institutional mechanisms

> Violation of social contract that society and government reposed on him.

> Legal and administrative repurcussions if found out later

> Violating principles of distributive justic and fairness

(2) NOT sharing information to his son rather to ~~his~~ the nephew of minister

Merits

> cordial relations with minister

> Recusal from taunts of conflict of interest and fiduciary violations

> Following their orders of political bosses as established by the constitution ~~and avoiding~~ &

Demerits

> personal relations ~~of~~ estrangulation > selective corruption and moral values breaking > collusion of "Neta-babu" in ethical, moral and regulatory misconduct towards society

> Breaking principles of fairness, distributive justice and objectivity

3) NOT sharing information with either of them

Merits

1) Upholds values of code of conduct and ethically good conduct

Please do not write anything except the question number in this space)

UPSC

Candidates must not write on this margin

2) Upholding rule of law, transparency and objectiveness

3) public trust reinforcement and socially rewarding

4) Establishing a role model for future administrators to follow.

5) Upholding fiduciary responsibility

Demerits

1) Estrangement of personal relations with both his son and minister

2) ~~Delay~~ Obstacles in project implementations

3) ~~3~~

34 min

(C) ~~which~~ I think the options 3 is most appropriate as the reasons follows.

1) upholds objectivity, transparency and rule of law

2) upholds and reinforces fiduciary responsibility of the office

3) Enhances public ~~t~~trust and confidence in government processes and institutional mechanisms

4) upholds distributive justice and fairness principle

Thus cases like these should be handled meticulously in order to uphold the office and public trust & confidence